Call to Confession
Prayer of Confession Merciful God, we are your children, unworthy of the grace and goodness you shower upon us. Recognizing our sin, we come before you this day, pleading for your forgiveness. Forgive the sins of the present and the sins of the past; the sins of the soul and the sins of the body; the sins done to please self and the sins done to please others. Forgive wanton and idle sins; forgive serious and deliberate sins; forgive those sins known and unknown. Forgive sins hidden so secretly from others, that they are hidden from our own memories. Forgive our sins of unforgiving and ungiving ways. Forgive them, O Lord, forgive them all. By your great mercy, absolve us of them all. By your bountiful goodness, deliver us from the bonds that trap us. Enable us to forgive others as we are forgiven by you. Grant this, O heavenly Father, for the sake of Jesus Christ, our blessed Lord and Redeemer.

Affirmation of Faith A Brief Statement of Faith In life and death we belong to God. Through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, we trust in the one triune God, the Holy One of Israel, whom alone we worship and serve. We trust in Jesus Christ, fully human, fully God. Jesus proclaimed the reign of God: preaching good news to the poor and release to the captives, teaching by word and deed and blessing the children, healing the sick and binding up the broken hearted, eating with outcasts, forgiving sinners, and calling all to repent and believe the gospel.

Prayer after Communion
All: God of abundance, with this bread of life and cup of salvation, you fill our cup to overflowing with your love and saving mercy. In this meal, you unite us with Christ, making us one with all your people. Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your abundant love to the world, and continue forever in the risen life of Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.
